Hi Erin –

I just got off the phone with Mike and Isaac, and I understand that Isaac also spoke with Shelly Heger, one of our section chiefs, earlier today regarding this matter. I believe we are in agreement that an additional site visit is not warranted for the reasons you described below. I did ask Mike and Isaac to share with me via email any relevant correspondence regarding Ohio EPA's interactions with Mr. Flood. They indicated they'd transmit that information to me.

Thanks for making your very helpful staff available to us as we worked through this complaint.

Jenny Beese

Subject: Mr. Flood Complaint

Hi, Jenny. Thanks for your phone message. Since there are no new concerns on this issue, and since there are no violations that we have identified after doing site visits (now coming on a year or two old), I am reluctant to spend scarce staff resources on yet another fruitless and unnecessary visit. If you really feel a site visit is necessary in order to respond to your management, we will do so. But, they should know the historic situation, that nothing has changed to warrant a visit, and that we have many other things that do require our attention. Please let me know if you feel your management will only be satisfied with a site visit or if a call would suffice (a call with a USEPA person (Pat?), Mr. Flood, and OEPA (probably Isaac).

Thanks,
Erin
